(“Barrick”) and their principals, Lucas Thomas Erb a/k/a Lucas Asher a/k/a Luke Asher (“Asher”), and Simon Batashvili (“Batashvili”). (Docket Entry (“D.E.”) #2).

2. Contemporaneously with the filing of the Complaint, Plaintiffs moved the Court on an emergency, ex parte basis, for an order, pursuant to Section 6c(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act (“CEA”), 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2018) and in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65, that: 1) freezes the assets of Defendants and Relief Defendant, (2) grants the CFTC and the States immediate access to the books, records, and other documents of Defendants and Relief Defendant and the authority to inspect and copy such records; (3) appoints a temporary receiver; and (4) grants Plaintiffs’ motion for expedited discovery in advance of a preliminary injunction hearing. (D.E. # 4-6; 11-12; 16).

3. On September 22, 2020, the Court granted Plaintiffs’ motion for emergency relief and entered a Statutory Restraining Order (“SRO”) (D.E. #16). The SRO: (1) prohibits Defendants from withdrawing, transferring, removing, dissipating, and disposing of assets; (2) prohibits Defendants from destroying, altering, or disposing of books, records, and other documents; (3) appoints Kelly Crawford of Scheef & Stone, LLP as temporary receiver for Defendants and Relief Defendant and (4) grants expedited discovery in advance of a preliminary injunction hearing. The SRO also set a hearing on preliminary injunction relief on October 6, 2020 and directed that SRO remain in full force and effect until to October 6, 2020 at 5:00 pm.

4. On October 5, 2020, the Court continued the hearing on Plaintiffs' application for a preliminary injunction to October 27, 2020 and directed that SRO remain in full force and effect until to October 27, 2020 at 5 p.m. (D.E. #148).

5. On September 24, 2020, Plaintiffs properly served Defendant Batashvili. (D.E. #127) and on September 26, 2020, Plaintiffs properly served Asher (D.E. #126).

6. Defendants Asher and Batashvili, without admitting or denying the allegations in the Complaint, except for allegations relating to venue and the Court's jurisdiction over the parties and over the subject matter of this action, to which Asher and Batashvili admit, consent to the entry of this Order for Preliminary Injunction ("Order") as set forth herein.

7. Defendants Asher and Batashvili enter into this Order voluntarily, and no promise or threat has been made by the Plaintiffs, or any member, officer, agent, or representative of the Plaintiffs to induce Defendants Asher and Batashvili to consent to this Order.

8. In consideration of the foregoing, and based on the entire record in this case, the Court finds that there is good cause to believe that a preliminary injunction is proper in this case to preserve the status quo; prevent the withdrawal, transfer, removal, dissipation or disposal of assets; prevent the destruction, alteration, or disposal of books and records and other documents; protect members of the public from loss and damage, and enable the Plaintiffs to fulfill their statutory duties in this civil enforcement action.

9. The Court hereby grants the Motion on the terms and conditions to which Plaintiffs and Defendants Asher and Batashvili have stipulated, as set forth below.

I. DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Order, the following definitions apply:

9. The terms “funds, assets, or other property” encompass any legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, any real or personal property, whether individually or jointly, directly or indirectly controlled, and wherever located, including but not limited to: chattels, goods, instruments, equipment, fixtures, general intangibles, effects, leaseholds mail or other deliveries, inventory, checks, notes, accounts (including, but not limited to, bank accounts and accounts at other financial institutions), credits, receivables, lines of credit, contracts (including spot, futures, options, or swaps contracts), insurance policies, and all funds, wherever located, whether in the United States or outside the United States.

10. The term “document” and “electronically stored information” are synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of those terms in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a), and includes, but are not limited to, all writings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or other data compilations—stored in any medium from which information can be obtained or translated, if necessary, into reasonable usable form. The terms “document” and “electronically stored information” also refer to each and every such item in Defendants’ actual or constructive possession, including but not limited to: (i) all such items within the custody or control of any agents, employers, employees, or partners of the Defendants; and (ii) all items which Defendants have a legal or equitable right to obtain from another person. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate item within the meaning of the term. A document also includes the file and folder tabs associated with each original and copy.

II. RELIEF GRANTED

THE PARTIES AGREE AND IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

I. Jurisdiction and Venue

10. Defendants Asher and Batashvili have been properly served with the Complaint and Summons and have consented to the entry of this Order.

11. The Court is authorized to enter a preliminary injunction and ancillary equitable relief against Defendants Asher and Batashvili pursuant to 7 U.S.C. §§ 13a-1, 13a-2 and the laws of the States.

12. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (2018) (federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. § 1345 (2018) (district courts have original jurisdiction over civil actions commenced by the United States or by any agency expressly authorized to sue by Act of Congress), as well as 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a) (supplemental jurisdiction over claims under the laws of the States).

13. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (2018) (federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. § 1345 (2018) (district courts have original jurisdiction over civil actions commenced by the United States or by any agency expressly authorized to sue by Act of Congress).

14. 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a) (2018), authorizes the CFTC to seek injunctive and other relief against any person whenever it appears to the CFTC that such person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of the CEA or any rule, regulation, or order thereunder.

15. 7 U.S.C. § 13a-2(1) (2018), authorizes the States to bring a suit in the district courts of the United States to seek injunctive and other relief against any person whenever it appears to the Attorney General and/or Securities Administrator of a State, or such other official that a State may designate, that the interests of the residents of the State have been, are being, or may be threatened or adversely affected because of violations of the CEA or CFTC Regulations.

16. Venue lies properly in this District pursuant to 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(e) (2018), because Defendants transacted business in this District, and certain of the acts and practices in violation of the CEA, the CFTC Regulations, and State laws occurred, are occurring, or are about to occur within this District, among other places. Venue also lies properly in this District pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the Plaintiffs' claims occurred in this District.

17. The Parties waive the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law for purposes of this Order pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Court accepts that waiver.

- h. Acting as a broker-dealer or investment adviser or associating with a licensed broker-dealer or investment adviser, in violation of the laws of the States.
- i. Soliciting, receiving, or accepting any funds from any person for the purpose of purchasing or selling securities or equities.

III. Asset Freeze Order Prohibiting the Withdrawal, Transfer, Removal, Dissipation, and Disposal of Assets

21. The SRO (D.E. #16) shall remain in full force and effect.

22. The injunctive provisions of this Order shall be binding upon Defendants Asher and Batashvili, and upon any person acting in the capacity of agents, servants, employees, assigns, attorneys, and persons in active concert or participation with them, including any successors thereof, of Defendants Asher and Batashvili, and upon any person who receives actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise insofar as he or she is acting in active concert or participation with Defendants Asher and Batashvili.

23. Defendants Asher and Batashvili and their agents, servants, employees, assigns, attorneys, and persons in active concert or participation with them, including any successor thereof, who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, are immediately restrained and enjoined, except as otherwise ordered by this Court, from directly or indirectly withdrawing, transferring, removing, dissipating, or otherwise disposing of any of their funds, assets, or other property, wherever located, including the Defendants Asher and Batashvili's funds, assets, or other property held outside the United States, in accordance with the Court's SRO and this Order.

24. At the request of the Receiver, Defendants Asher and Batashvili and any other person who has possession, custody, or control of any of Defendants Asher's and Batashvili's assets shall transfer possession of all funds, assets or other property subject to this Order to the Receiver in accordance with SRO and this Order.

25. The funds, assets, or other property affected by this Order shall include both existing funds, assets, or other property, and funds, assets, or other property acquired after the effective date of this Order, except as described in Sections VIII and IX of this Order.

IV. Maintenance of and Access to All Records That Relate to the Business Activities and Business and Personal Finances

26. Defendants Asher and Batashvili are restrained from directly or indirectly destroying, altering, or disposing of, in any manner, any records that relate or refer to the business activities or business or personal finances of any Defendant or Relief Defendant in accordance with the Court's SRO and this Order.

27. Representatives of the Plaintiffs shall, with 24 hours' notice, be allowed access to inspect the records that relate or refer to business activities and business and personal finances of Defendants Asher and Batashvili, including, but not limited to, both hard-copy documents and electronically stored information, wherever they may be situated and whether they are in the possession of the Defendants Asher and Batashvili or others. To ensure preservation and facilitate meaningful inspection and review of records, the Defendants Asher and Batashvili shall allow representatives of the Plaintiffs to make copies of said documents and electronically stored information, and if on-site copying of documents and electronically stored information is not practicable, representatives may make such copies off-site. After any such off-site copying, Plaintiffs shall promptly return the original documents and devices upon which electronic information is stored.

21. To further facilitate meaningful inspection and review, Defendants Asher and Batashvili shall promptly provide Plaintiffs with:

- a. the location of all records relating or referring to the business activities and business and personal finances of the Defendants Asher and Batashvili;
- b. all identification numbers and other identifying information for websites, cloud storage services, email and smartphone accounts, and all accounts at any bank, financial institution or brokerage firm (including any introducing broker or futures commission merchant) owned, controlled or operated by the Defendants Asher and Batashvili, or to which the Defendants Asher and Batashvili have access; and

22. When inspecting records that are subject to this Order, including those contained on computer(s) and/or other electronic device(s), Plaintiffs should undertake reasonable measures to prevent review of Defendants Asher and Batashvili privileged communications by Plaintiffs' attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter. Moreover, the Defendants Asher and Batashvili (or their counsel) shall promptly contact Plaintiffs' counsel to assert any claims of privilege or other legal objection relating to the contents of any records that are subject to this Order and promptly cooperate with Plaintiffs' counsel to develop reasonable protocols to isolate and prevent disclosure of claimed privileged materials to Plaintiffs' attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter. However, nothing herein shall excuse Defendants Asher and Batashvili from full and immediate compliance with this Court's Order permitting Plaintiffs to inspect the books and records which relate to the Defendants Asher's and Batashvili's business activities and their business and personal finances.

23. Nothing herein shall preclude Plaintiffs from providing materials obtained from Defendants Asher and Batashvili to any other government agency pursuant to a lawful access request by such agency.

29. The Receiver shall be the agent of this Court in acting as Receiver under this Order.

30. The directions, authorizations, duties, and powers of the Temporary Receiver under the SRO are granted in full to the Receiver, Kelly Crawford, and incorporated in full herein as part of the Order.

VI. Cooperation with the Receiver

31. Defendants Asher and Batashvili and all other persons or entities served with a copy of this order shall cooperate fully with and assist the Receiver. This cooperation and assistance shall include, but not be limited to, providing any information to the Receiver that the Receiver deems necessary to exercising the authority as provided in this Order; providing any password required to access any computer or electronic files in any medium; and discharging the responsibilities of the Receiver under this Order, and advising all persons who owe money to the Receivership Defendants that all debts should be paid directly to the Receiver.

VII. Turning Over Property to the Receiver

32. Upon service of this Order, and to the extent the Defendants Asher and Batashvili have not done so pursuant to the SRO, Defendants Asher and Batashvili, and any other person or entity served with a copy of this Order, shall immediately or within such time as permitted by the Receiver in writing, deliver over to the Receiver, including but not limited to:

- a. Possession and custody of all funds, assets, property, and all other assets, owned beneficially or otherwise, wherever situated, of the Receivership Defendants;

other property; and

- e. Information identifying the accounts, employees, properties or other assets or obligations of the Receivership Defendants.

VIII. Reasonable and Necessary Living Expenses

33. In accordance with Paragraph 44 of the SRO, Plaintiffs are authorized to take an asset deposition of Asher and Batashvili to determine the status of Defendants Asher's and Batashvili's financial condition, including but not limited to their funds, assets, and other tangible or real property, their compliance with the SRO to date, and their reasonable and necessary living expenses. The Receiver is authorized to attend and participate in these asset depositions in accordance with Paragraph 31(j) of the SRO.

34. Within five business days of the conclusion of the asset depositions, the parties will negotiate in good faith for a carve-out for reasonable and necessary living expenses—on a monthly basis—to be generated solely from any prospective earnings, bonuses, and/or other after-acquired income from newfound employment as described in Section IX, infra.

35. The Court will entertain an application for reasonable and necessary living expenses upon proper written submission by Defendants Asher and Batashvili. A proper submission requires that Defendants Asher and Batashvili file such application under oath with the Court and set forth in detail, fully substantiated by all relevant financial documentation, the amount of funds necessary to pay reasonable and necessary living expenses, a description of the expenses for which those funds are to be applied, a description of the assets sought to be used to pay such expenses, and a description of the derivation of such assets. Plaintiffs and/or the Receiver may object or otherwise respond to such application.

IX. Restricted Business Activities and Employment

36. Defendants Asher and Batashvili wish to seek gainful employment to cover their reasonable and necessary living expenses.

37. Only specific prospective earnings, bonuses, and/or other after-acquired income, salary, wages, commissions, dividends, draws, or other forms of compensation or passive income from any newfound employment or activity (“New Income”) will be excluded from the restraints imposed by the Order for the limited purpose of covering Defendants Asher’s and Batashvili’s agreed-to reasonable living expenses pursuant to the process described in Section VIII, supra, and subject to the restrictions in this Section.

38. Defendants Asher and Batashvili agree that they will not engage in any activity related to securities, commodities, or derivatives, including but not limited to soliciting, receiving, or accepting any funds from any person or entity for the purpose of purchasing, selling, or otherwise investing in precious metals, securities, commodities, derivatives, virtual currency, binary options, or foreign currency or receive any income, salary, wages, commissions, dividends, draws, or other forms of compensation or passive income from any person or entity engaged in said activities.

39. Within two days of securing any New Income, Defendants Asher and Batashvili shall provide the name and address of the employer, person, or entity, as well the name of a contact person and telephone number from its personnel office to Plaintiffs and the Receiver.

40. Within ten days of this Order, Defendants Asher and Batashvili shall each open a single new bank account in his name to deposit any New Income, and to withdraw such funds for reasonable and necessary living expenses as ordered by the Court. The Receiver shall be a co-owner and have unfettered access to these new accounts. Within twenty-four (24) hours of opening such a new bank account, Defendants Asher and Batashvili shall provide complete information to the Receiver about the account, including the name of the bank, address, telephone number, and account number.

41. Any and all other bank accounts in the name of any Defendant or Relief Defendant shall remain subject to terms of the Order that prohibit Defendants or Relief Defendant from transferring, removing, dissipating, or otherwise disposing of any asset.

42. All dispositions of funds from the new bank account authorized by this Order, until further order of the Court, shall also be subject to monitoring by the Receiver. The Receiver is authorized to obtain copies of any and all bank statements.

X. Persons Bound by This Order

43. This Order is binding on any person who receives actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise and is acting in the capacity of an officer, agent, servant, employee, or attorney of Defendants or Relief Defendant, or is in active concert or participation with the Defendants or Relief Defendant.

XI. Stay on Actions Against the Receivership Defendants

44. Except by leave of the Court, during the pendency of the receivership ordered herein, Defendants Asher and Batashvili, and all other persons and entities are stayed from taking any action (other than the present action by Plaintiffs) to establish or enforce any claim, right or interest for, against, on behalf of, in, or in the name of, the Receivership Defendants, the Receiver, receivership assets, or the Receiver's duly authorized agents acting in their capacities as such, including but not limited to, the following actions:

- a. Petitioning, or assisting in the filing of a petition that would cause the Receivership Defendants to be placed in bankruptcy;
- b. Commencing, prosecuting, litigating or enforcing any suit or proceeding against any of the Receivership Defendants, or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates, except that such actions may be filed to toll any applicable statute of limitations;

- e. Using self-help or executing or issuing, or causing the execution or issuance of, any court attachment, subpoena, replevin, execution or other process for the purpose of impounding or taking possession of or interfering with, or creating or enforcing a lien upon any property, wherever located, owned by or in the possession of the Receivership Defendants, or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates, or the Receiver, or any agent of the Receiver; and
- f. Doing any act or thing whatsoever to interfere with the Receiver taking control, possession or management of the property subject to the receivership, or to in any way interfere with the Receiver or to harass or interfere with the duties of the Receiver; or to interfere in any manner with the exclusive jurisdiction of this Court over the property and assets of the Receivership Defendants, or their subsidiaries or affiliates.

45. Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall prohibit any federal or state law enforcement or regulatory authority from commencing or prosecuting an action against the Receivership Defendants.

XII. Bond Not Required of Plaintiffs or the Receiver

46. As Plaintiffs CFTC and the States have made a proper showing under 7 U.S.C. §13a-1(b) and they are not required to post any bond in connection with this Order. The Receiver similarly is not required to post bond.

XIII. Force and Effect

47. This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further order of this Court, and that this Court retains jurisdiction of this matter for all purposes.
